No 2127 Spring Garden St.
Sept. 15. 1881.

To the Directors of the Library Co of Philadelphia.

Gentlemen.

Mr William J. Phillips of Frankford, being an applicant to you for the position of Janitor of the Library building, I take the liberty of expressing a hope that his request will meet with your favorable consideration. I have known Mr Phillips for seventeen years, and have had during that time, frequent opportunities of information as to his family relations, character and conduct. As a husband and father, he has been steady, industrious and faithful, amid discouragements - his means being small and his earnings limited - He is sober, prudent, a total abstinent from liquors of all kinds - and has been so as long as I have known him. He is careful and ready to encounter work without desire to escape from any necessary duty. He is honest and truthful, and may be trusted with valuable property to any amount. He would be, in my judgment, a reliable person to have about as valuable institution as the Library, and I feel convinced that in connection of intention agreable manner and fidelity, he would prove useful and trustworthy.

Yours truly Thompson Westcott

Gentlemen

The bearer of this note Mr William J Phillips of Frankford, desiring to make application for the position of Janitor at the Philadelphia Library - ~~desires~~ has requested of me a letter of recommendation. Mr Phillips is a member of St. Mark's Prot. Epis. Church in this place - of which I am at present the Rector. As I have but recently taken charge of the Parish, I cannot speak of Mr Phillips from a very long acquaintance with him, as the former Rector - Rev. Dr

Miller - now in Europe - could do - and, I have no doubt would do - were he here. But I know something of Mr Phillips and his family - and I believe I can safely commend him to you as a man of good moral character - temperate - intelligent and trustworthy - capable of discharging the duties of the vacant office which he seeks to fill - in a manner satisfactory to you - & creditable to himself - I respectfully ask for him this application a kind consideration from your honorable body - and for the sake of himself and family - I sincerely hope he may be successful in obtaining Employment at your hands -

I am
Very Truly Yours
